

1. Which websites would you use to organize a trip in a country or a city you do not know ?

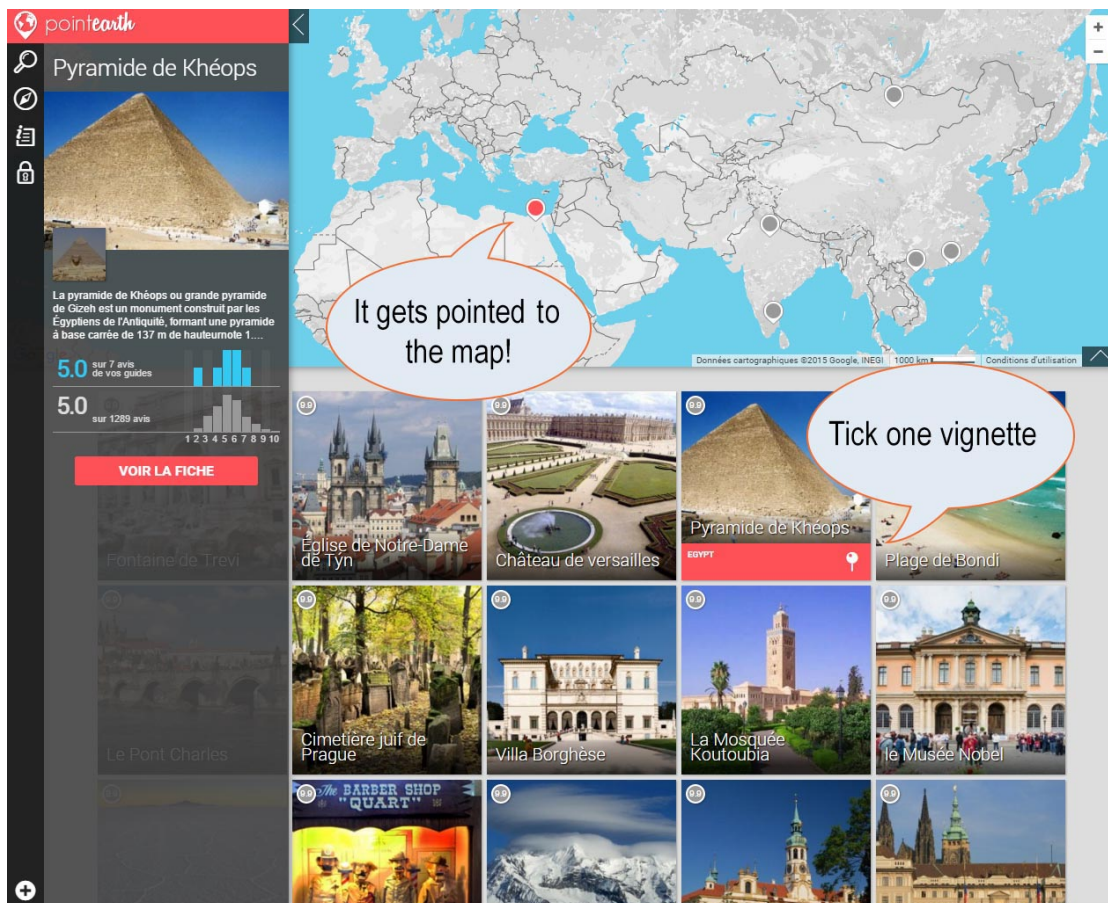

By « organize » we mean more “what to do / where to go” rather than « how to book a hotel ? ».

Please list below the websites

1. Imagine you go travelling 15 days in a country you do not know much about. Which websites would you find helpful to elaborate your roadmap?

Please list below the websites

2. For any given countries, our website would basically display vignettes showing amazing places that one would be able to geo-localize « at a glance » by simply clicking on them (see below). Do you have in mind any website that already enables you to do this ?

Please list below the websites

3. We picked the name “www.pointearth.com” for that website. How does it sounds for you? Do you think it matches with the concept of the website described above?

4. Would you have any suggestions maybe ?